LEVANA RESTAURANT ANNOUNCES RELOCATION

New York, NY, MAY 7, 2008 – LEVANA Restaurant, New York's 30-year-old pioneer of kosher gourmet dining, has announced a change of plans for the renovation of their recent location. A new location is being sought and has yet to be announced.

LEVANA continues to offer their full off-premise dining and catering services. LEVANA currently delivers hundreds of meals weekly from a commissary in New Jersey to some of New York's best restaurants and prestigious locations to provide kosher guests with elegant and delicious meals wherever they are.

LEVANA will also continue their world-renowned Passover Vacation Program. Families reunite year after year to experience an unforgettable week of gracious service and wonderful holiday meals at five-star hotels in the USA and beyond.

LEVANA's managing partner, Sol Kirschenbaum, looks forward to exploring new location options and welcoming LEVANA's loyal clientele into a new exciting space.

About LEVANA Restaurant: A sophisticated, award-winning kosher restaurant, LEVANA is known as the pioneer of upscale, kosher dining with their sumptuous, contemporary cuisine including creative meat, fish and vegetarian specialties.
