LEVANA RESTAURANT ANNOUNCES EXTENSIVE RENOVATION

New York, NY, DECEMBER 24, 2008 – LEVANA Restaurant will be closed for renovations as of January 1st until mid-April as the 30-year-old pioneer of kosher gourmet dining undergoes an extensive renovation.

While the renovation is underway, LEVANA will continue to offer their full off-premise dining and catering services. LEVANA delivers hundreds of meals weekly, with a range of packaging and plating choices, to some of New York's best restaurants and prestigious locations to provide kosher guests with elegant and delicious meals wherever they are.

From its humble beginnings as a beloved neighborhood bakery serving its famous home-style desserts, LEVANA evolved into a café with an award-winning design, and finally, to its present form, a sophisticated restaurant serving creative meat, fish and vegetarian specialties.

LEVANA's managing partner, Sol Kirschenbaum, said much will be revised and looks forward to welcoming LEVANA's loyal clientele into the new exciting space.

The new design, featuring warm golds, browns and green accents, will echo the look and feel of their newly redesigned web site, www.levana.com. "It will be stunning," said Kirschenbaum, noting the new layout will also offer space for larger groups.

About LEVANA Restaurant: A sophisticated, award-winning Upper West Side kosher restaurant, LEVANA is known as the pioneer of upscale, kosher dining with their sumptuous, contemporary cuisine including creative meat, fish and vegetarian specialties.
